

Command	Mode	Action	Remarks
nvim	Terminal	Open nvim editor
nvim filename	Command	Opens file nvim filename1 filename2	Command	Opens multiple files
:tabs	Command	lists all open tabs
gt	Command	navigate tabs
2gt	Command	Go to tab number 2	by giving the number with gt, you can go to any open tab
i	Edit	Edit Mode	You can start typing your text
o	Edit	Edit mode in the next line	You can start typing text in the next line
a	Edit	Edit Mode, next character	You can start typing text from the next character Here, you cannot type text in the file, but can do other operations like search etc..
Esc	Command	Command Mode
j	Command	Got to next line
k	Command	Got to previous line
l	Command	Go to next character in the same line
h	Command	Go to previous character in the same line
p	Command	Paste
v	Visual	Select
Shift+v	Visual	Select Lines
Ctrl+v,j,Shift+l,%,Esc	Visual	Comment current line and	Replacing % with # will insert #, useful for bash files or python files. You can comment more lines as well, by navigating lines using j or k
Ctrl+v,j,x	Visual	Uncomment current line ar	You can uncomment more lines as well
dd	Command	Delete current line 3dk	Command	Delete 3 lines before current line di{	Command	Delete all within {}	you can do this for () and [] as well yy	Command	copy current line 3yy	Command	copy the next 3 lines	You an copy more lines similarly w	Command	Go to next word
b	Command	Go to previous word
			You can use d with v, Shift+v, etc.. to cut characters, lines, words etc..
dw	Command	Delete current word
0	Command	Go to beginning of the line
:1	Command	Go to the first line in the file
:10	Command	Go to line 10 in the file
ctrl+^	Command	Go to beginning of the line $	Command	Go to end of line
g, _	Command	Go to end of line Shift+g	Command	Go to end of file gt	Command	Go to next file
3gt	Command	Go to 3rd file in tab
Ctrl+W,c	Command	Close current file
:	Command	Use command mode	You can start giving commands in command mode
:w	Command	Save file
:/	Command	Search for string	e.g. :/input will search for the string "input" in the text
:tabnew filename	Command	Open file in a new tab
:3tabdo wq	Command	save and close 3rd file
:wq	Command	save and close file
:q!	Command	Close file without saving
.,,$tabdo wq	Command	Close all files, starting from the current file
:1,3tabdo wq	Command	Close files 1 and 3
:s@find@replace	Command	find and replace word in current line, find is the word to be found and replaced with the word replace
:s@find@replace@g	Command	find and replace all words in current line
:%s@find@replace@gc	Command	find and replace all words in the current file, but with y/n condition
.,,$s@find@replace@gc	Command	find and replace from the current line to the last line
!!s	Command	List all files/folders in curre	You can start using :! for bash shell commands, like mv, cp etc..
q:	Command	Allows you to use vim commands in the command mode
Ctrl+R,%	Insert	Prints the path of currently open file in edit mode
:u	Command	Undo
:buffers	Command	Lists all buffers
:sbuffer 1	Command	Opens buffer number 1 in a split window
Ctrl>+<w

:bufdo e
:tab sb 2
"a7yy
"ap

Command
Command
Command
Command

Reload all buffers in Vim
Open buffer 2 file in new tab Yank next seven lines into buffer a Paste after cursor